Income-tax and Economic Survey Departments—Applicants for appointment in.

362. Mr. K. Ayyappan.—Will the Government be pleased to give a caste-war statement of:—

(1) the applicants for appointments in (a) the Income-tax Department and (b) the Economic Survey Department;

(2) and such of those applicants as have been appointed?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Two statements containing the required information are appended. (Appendix III) (1) and (2).

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—With regard to the appointment of the Income-tax Officers, may I know whether it is the Diwan's appointment or appointment made by the Income-tax Commissioner?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—By the Government. Not by the Income-tax Commissioner.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Had there been any recommendation from the Income-tax Commissioner regarding the appointment of these officers?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes. I think there was a reference. He suggested that perhaps it may be better to have Law-Graduates.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know what are the qualifications of the present Income-tax Officers?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—One of them was the Superintendent in the Huzur. He has been, I think, in the Huzur for about 12 years and the other one was the Manager of the Conservator's Office. He has been the Manager for about 2 and odd years.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—I believe they are not Graduates-in-Law?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—No.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—What was the difficulty in acting upon the suggestion of the Income-tax Commissioner, that the officers may preferably be Graduates-in-Law?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—There was no necessity for that. It does not seem that Graduates-in-Law should be preferred, for these appointments. They have not got to hear any suits or appeals.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—We have got here a list of graduates and Graduates-in-Law from various communities. May I know why these two gentlemen were preferred?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Because they were the senior men in service in the grade of Rs. 80—100. One was acting in the grade of Rs. 100—150 as Superintendent in the Huzur. This being a new department Government thought that it would be desirable to have experienced men to put the whole thing into shape very soon.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Have these gentlemen any experience in the income-tax line?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—That is the very reason why they have been sent out for training. But in the regular office work they have ample experience.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are these officers expected to do office work?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are their functions defined?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes. Their functions are defined in the Regulation.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are they expected to know income-tax law?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Have they got any knowledge of that?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—That is the reason why they have been sent to the income-tax office at Calicut. As much law as will be required they will learn from there.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Had they any training so as to understand legal points?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—They will not have to deal with any abstract legal points. No suit will be filed before them. All suits will go before the Deputy Commissioner and after that the Commissioner himself. These Income-tax Officers working under the Deputy Commissioner will not have to deal with any law at all. At the same time it is desirable that they should know closely the provision of the Regulation and Rules so far as income-tax is concerned. That they can have by going through the office files and other documents in the Calicut sub-office.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—Are they both of them graduates?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—According to the list given here one K. V. Narayanan, S. S. L. C., is seen appointed in the department.

Mr. U. Kandar Menon.—He is only a typist.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—As far as these Income-tax Officers are concerned, are they the senior-most men in service?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Their grade is only Rs. 100—150. One was acting in the grade of Rs. 100—150 in the Huzur.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—With regard to the other one whose permanent place is on Rs. 80—100, are there not senior men in that grade in the Government service?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes. There are a few men above him.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Then what were his preferential qualifications?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—He was the Manager of the Office of one of the major Heads of Departments.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—How are they better qualified than Graduates-in-Law?

Rama Varmha Tampuran—They have ample experience in office work. That is a necessary requisite more than academic qualifications.

Mr. T. K. Nayar—Have the Government consulted any other Governmentin this matter?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—No.

Mr. Paul Mampilli.—Are the Government aware that only Law Graduates are appointed in British India as Income-tax Officers?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Most probably. There the Income-tax Officers have to hear cases also. But here we have only mere Income-tax Inspectors.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are they not called Income-tax Officers in our State?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—They are called Income-tax Officers. Each Government has its own set of names.

Mr. Paul Mampilli.—May I know whether a general knowledge of lawwill not be an additional qualification?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I do not deny it.

Mr. Paul Mampilli.—Don't you think that these officers will have to go as Deputy Commissioner?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I don't think so.

Mr. Paul Mampilli.—When the Deputy Commissioner takes leave?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—That is a contingency which happens inany department.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Why did not the Government select Law Graduates who are in service?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I don't think there are any with such long experience in office work.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are there not Law Graduates in the Registration Department?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes, but they have not got much office experience.

Mr. P. S. Kesavan Nambudiri.—Who is the best authority to decide the question? The Diwan or the Commissioner?

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Certainly the Diwan.

Mr. Joseph Pettah.—What is the amount of experience that is expected from such an officer?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I cannot give any definite period as the minimum required for a place like this.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—What is the purpose of knowing office experience?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Because he has to run a department.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know Sir, in the opinion of the Government regarding the appointment of the Deputy Commissioner qualification in law was one of the considerations?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes; because he has to try cases.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—What was the reason that prevailed with the Government in selecting the present incumbent?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I answered that two days ago. He was one of the best judicial officers available.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Am I to take from that answer that in the long list of 200 candidates of whom about 50 are Graduates-in-Law, this gentleman was the only man competent?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Had the Government the idea to give representation to a minority community in making the appointment?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Of course, as experienced men were not available from the minority communities with the necessary qualifications, they preferred this gentleman.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Was it not on that ground that Mr. Chummar was preferred?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—There is nothing on record to show that it is so.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Then how is it that persons with greater experience were ignored in preference to this gentleman?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I answered that two days back. They preferred the best man available.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—What is his qualification to be the best man? He was taken from the Magistracy, where there were men with greater service and equal qualifications drawing a higher pay than the present incumbent?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The quantity and quality of work that this officer turns out.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—How many more are yet to be appointed?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I think there are only a few clerks.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Of those appointed already, how many belong to the unrepresented community?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—None.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—With regard to the quality of the work that the Magistrates turn out, how did the Government know about their comparative merits?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The master always knows the quality of the work of his subordinates. No further explanation is therefore required.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Was the opinion of the District Magistrate called for regarding the work of the Magistrates?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Not at this present moment. There may have been discussions between the District Magistrate and the Diwan. There has been no written correspondence.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Is there anything on record to show that Mr. V. C. Krishna Menon has not been turning out good work?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—There is nothing on record.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Otherwise than on record?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I do not know. I can only answer with regard to what is on record.

Mr. A. Sankara Poduval.—Will the Government be pleased to consider the claims of unrepresented communities like the Vellalas, Chakkans, Pillais and such other communities in making the new appointments? Their claims have been entirely ignored by the Government.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Yes.

Applicants for appointment in the Income-tax Department

363. Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the names of applicants with their qualifications for posts in the Income-tax Department?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The Member is referred to the statement appended to the answer to question No. 362.

364. Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to state the names of applicants who have applied for the post of Inspectors in the Income-tax Department with their qualifications?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The Member is referred to the statement appended to the answer to question No. 362.
